Each state has different laws that may further restrict or even prohibit IID licenses when a driver's license status is revoked. It is your responsibility as the holder of an IID license, not the Delaware DMV, to contact the DMV or law enforcement agency in other states to ensure your ability to operate a motor vehicle with an IID license in other jurisdictions.

I will abide by these conditions and understand that failure to abide by these conditions will result in termination from the program and loss of all driving privileges for the complete duration of the revocation period.*
