Driving Record Information:

The personal information contained in motor vehicle records is highly sensitive and protected by federal and state statute. Large fines may be assessed against any person who improperly releases personal information. Personal information is defined as any information that identifies an individual, including an individual’s photograph, social security number, driver license number, name, address, telephone number and medical or disability information. The information pertaining to your driving history, such as convictions and license status, is public information. The statute allows the release of personal information when approved by the individual to whom the record pertains or by exception under specific circumstances. These exceptions are listed on the back of the Personal Information Release Form. The Division does not release your personal information for marketing purposes.

INSTRUCTIONS:

If you are a company/business and have a valid reason under the statute to receive another’s information, please fill out the entire form and have it notarized. Failure to do so will result in the denial and return of your request.
